

BIOGRAPHY OF RICKY D. GREEN

The Law Office of Ricky D. Green opened its doors on February 16, 2005 to serve the interests of workers' compensation insurers across the state of Texas. The law firm is based in Austin, Texas and serves as the Austin board representative for self-insureds and insurers before the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation. Ricky is known for his commitment to understanding the fundamentals of his client's interests and objectives, and uses this insight to develop his cases. His ability to develop close working relationships with his clients allows him to be responsive and in tune with their needs.

Ricky was a partner at the law firm of Harris & Harris, and worked there for nine years before starting his law firm. For more than eighteen years, Ricky has specialized in Texas workers' compensation insurance defense, providing a complete range of services from handling benefit review conferences, benefit contested case hearings, appeals, subrogation, judicial review litigation, medical dispute resolution, compliance and practices matters, Austin board representation, and free continuing education.

Ricky has a leadership role in the state's workers compensation system. He maintains a strong presence before the Division of Workers' Compensation by routinely attending stakeholder meetings to comment on proposed changes in the workers' compensation laws, and also participates in a focus group, whose main objective is to make suggestions to the Commissioner with ideas on how to improve the Texas comp system. He is a member of the Texas State Bar planning committee for the Advanced Workers' Compensation Seminar, and has been a speaker at its annual seminar.

Ricky is a member of the Texas Chapter of the Public Risk Management Association ("PRIMA"), North and South Central Texas Regional Certification Agencies for minority businesses, and other business associations. Ricky is a member of the State Bar of Texas, the Austin Black Lawyers' Association, the Travis County Bar Association, the American Bar Association and the Austin Chamber of Commerce.
