

BETTYE LYNN

Bettye is a partner of Lynn Ross Gannaway & Cranford, LLP. She has been certified as a specialist in labor and employment law by the Texas State Bar for 32 years. She practices exclusively in management labor and employment law, and represents cities across the State of Texas. Bettye has extensive experience in civil service and municipal collective bargaining and provides counsel on sensitive public employment matters. Bettye conducts training on employee issues for high level city management officials and litigates employment law issues when this option becomes the last resort.

Bettye earned her Bachelor's in Government from American University in Washington, DC, her Master's in Public Administration from the University of Kansas and her Juris Doctor from the DePaul College of Law. Bettye also publishes the Texas Civil Service Reporter. She was awarded TMHRA's Charlie B. Shapard Award for Lifetime Achievement in 2011.
