

Ross Coleman, Fire Marshal, City of San Angelo

Ross Coleman has served as the Fire Marshal for the City of San Angelo, Texas for the past 5 years. Prior to San Angelo, he served as the Fire Marshal and Emergency Management Coordinator for Bexar County and worked in numerous positions with the Texas State Fire Marshal's Office. While in Bexar County, he was a commissioned Special Deputy United States Marshal serving on the Lone Star Fugitive Task Force. He holds multiple certifications within his field to include Fire Inspector, Arson Investigator and Texas Peace Officer. He is a graduate of the National Fire Academy's Executive Fire Officer Program. In addition to his Fire Marshal career, he serves as an Adjunct Instructor for Park University and the University of Texas of the Permian Basin teaching courses related to Criminal Justice, Criminology, Public Administration and Emergency Management. He holds a Bachelor's Degree from Southwest Texas State University, as well as two master's degrees from Sul Ross University which include a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice and a Master's in Public Administration.